

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: May 2, 1995

SUBJECT: SB 747 - HB 1721

This bill, if enacted, will adopt the Uniform Comparative Fault Act.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be an increase in state expenditures to the Claims Award Fund; however, such increase cannot be determined but is estimated to exceed $100,000.

Enactment of this bill is also estimated to result in an increase in expenditures to local governments*; however, such increase cannot be reasonably determined but is estimated to exceed $100,000.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director

Article II, Section 24 of the Tennessee Constitution provides that: no law of general application shall impose increased expenditure requirements on cities or counties unless the General Assembly shall provide that the state share in the cost.*
